Description

An Edwardian oak display cabinet with fine inlay detailing, dating from the early 20th century. This upright cabinet features glass panels to the front, sides, and top, allowing for excellent visibility from all angles. The glazed front door and lift-up top provide easy access to the interior, which includes two fixed shelves and a mirrored back. Raised on square legs, the cabinet has a light oak finish and subtle line inlay to the frame, characteristic of Edwardian craftsmanship. Ideal for retail display or home use.
