

SA1138394

A Sterling Silver Victorian 1891 B/Ham Henry Tatton & Son Engraved Trophy Cup

Price

GBP 495

| USD $670 | EUR 579

Item Reference: SA1138394

Date of manufacture: 19th Century

Description

This Victorian trophy cup, made by Henry Tatton & Son in Birmingham in 1891, is a beautiful and historic piece. Crafted from sterling silver, the cup showcases the quality and craftsmanship of its time. Victorian Trophy Cup 1891 Birmingham by Henry Tatton & Son Engraved with: RIC Sport 1894 Presented by Sir Andrew Reed Inspector General R.I.C To Thomas Argue Dimensions: 18.8 x 9.5 cm Weight: 240 g This inscription shows that the trophy was awarded in 1894 at a sporting event organized by the Royal Irish Constabulary (RIC). It was presented by Sir Andrew Reed to Thomas Argue, adding a personal and historical touch. The trophy measures 18.8 cm high and 9.5 cm wide, weighing 240 grams. It features elegant Victorian design elements typical of Henry Tatton & Son's craftsmanship. This trophy is not only a decorative piece, but also a valuable historical artifact. It offers insight into the social and ceremonial practices of the late 19th century. Whether part of a collection or displayed on its own, this goblet is admired for its beauty and historical significance.

Seller Details

Bushells Antiques

Westminster London WC2H United Kingdom By appointment only.

Tel: 0800 049 6228

International Tel: +44 800 049 6228