Description

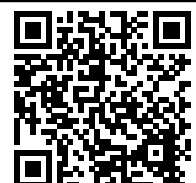

A large and impressive antique mahogany breakfront bookcase. The bookcase features a moulded cornice above a linen-lined boarded back fitted with twelve adjustable shelves, forming fifteen individual compartments of varied sizes—ideal for books or display. The lower section comprises a central cupboard with a lip-moulded door, which opens to reveal a shelved interior, flanked by two compartments each with a single shelf. The central cupboard is complete with a working lock and key. Raised on a plinth base, this piece offers both elegant design and substantial storage. Please note, this is a substantial piece of antique furniture and separates into two sections for ease of transport. Be sure to check measurements and access prior to purchase. Item Ref; M-5900 .
