Description

This sterling silver and wood judge's gavel from Tiffany & Co., dating from the 1960s, is a distinctive piece that embodies both elegance and craftsmanship. Renowned for its luxury objects, Tiffany & Co. has created a sophisticated presentation gavel that combines functionality and aesthetic appeal. The mallet features a beautifully polished wooden handle, providing a warm and classic contrast with the sterling silver head. The silver adds a touch of refined luxury, emphasizing the mallet's importance beyond its simple function. Measuring 26 x 8.5 x 5 cm, this gavel is standard-sized, making it suitable for display in a professional setting, such as a judge's office or as an executive desk accessory. This piece would be perfect for legal memorabilia collectors or Tiffany & Co. enthusiasts, offering a unique blend of historical and decorative value. Whether used in ceremonial settings or displayed as part of a collection, this mallet is sure to be a conversation piece, reflecting both the prestige of its creator and the seriousness of its function.
