Description

A late c.18th burr walnut and parcel gilt fretwork pier-glass wall mirror. This George III period mirror features a well figured burr walnut veneered fretwork frame, an oblong mirror plate with a gilt leaf moulded wavy inner border, with conforming leaf and flower side pendants, the arched top centred by Prince of Wales feathers cartouche, and shaped apron. Dimensions: This frame measures approximately 107.5 cm (42.25") tall, 55 cm (21.625") wide, and 3 cm (1.25") deep. The mirror glass measures 64 cm (25.25") by 34.5 cm (13.5"). Condition: Please see the pictures for details of the items condition. - This frame is in a good condition, commensurate with its age, and is structurally sound. The apron section of the frame with possible replaced veneer, and the bottom right corner with a spilt in the veneer. The outside right, bottom section of the giltwood pendant has been replaced. A little of the parcel gilt has been over painted, though much of it remains original. Later mirror glass. Overall a well presented piece. Cleaned and waxed, ready for use. - As with all vintage & antique furniture there will be signs of use, marks, wear & tear, etc.
