Description

An Extremely Elegant and Stylish Wrought Iron and Granite Console Table. (Pair Available) This sophisticated console table features a thick-cut demilune granite top, showcasing a stunning coarse-grained wave pattern that feels almost like leather to the touch. The top is supported by a symmetrical three-legged wrought iron base, which terminates in simple pad feet. The clean lines and refined design lend the piece a timeless elegance—almost minimalistic—making it a versatile addition to both modern and traditional interiors. Of good size and proportions. We have a pair available, perfect for placing in a hallway or flanking either side of a fireplace.
