Description

A stylish 19th century black lacquer chinoiserie occasional table, the shaped rectangular top hand-painted in a japanned chinoiserie style with gilt and red foliate decoration. Raised on slender turned legs united by a stretcher and resting on shaped feet, the ebonised surfaces display a wonderful aged patina, providing real character and a pleasing timeworn aesthetic. A decorative and functional piece that would work beautifully as a lamp table, occasional table or hallway accent. Presented in very good antique condition with lots of attractive surface wear. Structurally sound, perfectly clean and ready to place in the home. English, circa 1870. H: 71 W: 65 D: 37.5 cm
