Description

Stunning console table by Marsh Jones Cribb & Co an important furniture maker in the 19th Century (see below). Made from walnut and stunning quality. In excellent overall condition for the home. We have bleached it for a lighter decorative look. Length 183 cm Depth 75 cm Height 77.5 cm Marsh, Jones & Cribb West Bar, Boar Lane and Basinghall Street, Leeds, Yorkshire; cabinet makers and upholsterers &. (fl. 1864-1936). John Marsh and Edward Jones bought John Kendell's business at 10 West Bar in 1864 but did not acquire the Boar Lane premises until 1869. Kendell also had a London branch in Cavendish Square. Henry Humphries Cribb, who had a furnishing business in Soho Square, London, sent his son to Marsh & Jones in Leeds to serve his apprenticeship. This son became a partner in the firm by 1872 and subsequently listed in directories as Marsh, Jones and Cribb. Exhibitions included:- Yorkshire Exhibition of Arts and Manufactures (1875) Exposition Universelle in Paris (1878): Talbert-designed carved oak sideboard with marquetry and carved panels (illus. Meyer, (2006) p. 258); mantelpieces and panelling. They were awarded a bronze medal for cheap & fancy furniture in Class 17 ...
