Description

A superb quality Regency period card table in beautiful rosewood with fine brass inlay. The swivel-action top opens smoothly to reveal a newly fitted black baize playing surface, while the underside offers a storage compartment for cards and gaming pieces. The top features decorative brass inlay work, complemented by brass-trimmed panels around the frieze. It stands elegantly on a reeded central column, supported by a shaped base with brass casters for easy movement. Presented in showroom condition, this table has been fully restored to a very high standard, preserving its original charm while offering modern-day functionality. An outstanding example of Regency furniture, ideal for any interior. W 91cm (3ft) D 45cm (17.75") H 71.5cm (28.25") Floor to underside of table H 59cm (23.25")
