Description

An elegant bedside / pot cupboard dating from the early 1800s, primarily made of oak with a mahogany top. Standing on four turned tapering legs with a raised gallery top and shaped hand holes. A single door with brass knob opens to reveal a small storage cupboard. It is in good condition for its age and is strong and sturdy with a lovely patina. There are signs of age and use, some light marks and knocks and a couple of old repairs but nothing detrimental and overall it displays well. It has been cleaned and gently polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers. Please get in touch for an accurate quote to your location.
