Description

A lovely antique amethyst heart shaped pendant. This lovely pendant is set with a beautiful amethyst which is cabochon & smooth on the front & faceted to the back. The amethyst is deeper towards the edges of the stone & lighter in the centre. The faceting of the stone is lovely, giving it a star effect. It is set into a heart shaped frame which has no markings, but has been tested as 12ct gold. There is a large loop to the top so it can slide easily on a chain. A lovely pendant, would be great to wear or to give as a present. Condition: In lovely antique condition. Period: Victorian Measurements: 1.4cm wide x 2.5cm drop (including loops) x 0.75cm deep Measurements are approximate. Stock code: 42223
