Description

A fine mid-Victorian long mahogany footstool, with a beautifully inlaid frieze and shaped bracket feet, topped with a deep-padded velvet upholstery in a faded blush tone. An elegant and attractive piece which can add some decorative character to a living space, and would work equally well at the end of a bed, beneath a window, or along a hallway wall. Presented in very good antique condition with an attractive aged patina to the wood. Structurally all solid, clean, and ready to place in the home. English, circa 1870. H: 12 W: 98 D: 23.5 cm
