Description

A attractive antique Chinese carved camphor wood chest dating from circa 1920. With carved reliefs on the top and front of boats and figures fighting within a seascape and landscape. It has brass corners and strapping and stands firmly on Queen Anne feet. The sides and back are also carved. To the sides are two metal handles along with its original brass campaign style handle to the lid and brass escutcheon. Inside, the chest is clean camphor wood with its distinctive pleasant aroma and has a brass support arm and brass lock stamped "Tinkee". An attractive example with good colour and patina. Would make a great blanket chest, storage box or could be used as a decorative coffee table or TV stand. The feet are a later addition. Construction/Wood: Camphor wood Condition Report: Good condition. General wear and marks commensurate with age. No key. Feet later addition. Dimensions: Width: 87cm Depth: 47cm Height to top: 55cm Internal: 41cm Deep x 82cm Wide x 28cm High
