Description

A sweet Edwardian mahogany side chair in the Art Nouveau style. The pierced back features a flowing organic design over a finely upholstered sage green seat, raised on tapering front legs terminating in spade feet. Delicate and well-proportioned, a versatile occasional chair perfect to bring a little charm to a living room, bedroom or hallway. Presented in very good antique condition. The upholstery is clean, the frame is sturdy, and the wood has developed a rich, mellow patina. Structurally all sound, perfectly clean and ready to place in the home. English, circa 1910.
