Description

Early 20th Century Oak Window Table This Vintage Oak Window Table on Turned Legs is a charming piece from the early 20th century, crafted from oak and showcasing classic design elements. The table features beautifully turned legs and a stretchered base, adding to its sturdy construction and elegant appearance. While the top shows some discolouration and marks, these natural signs of age only enhance the piece's character and timeless appeal. The table's great shape and lovely proportions make it an ideal addition to any room, whether used as a window table, side table, or accent piece. With its classic oak finish and versatile design, this table brings both functionality and style to traditional and modern interiors alike.
