Description

Pair of elegant late C19th figured walnut or satin birch bedside tables or nightstands. A true pair of 'opposing' left and right door opening bedside tables. Having subtle and restrained ebony stinging line inlay to the figured quarter-veneered doors and sides. Each fitted with a ebonised door-pull knob. Raised on tapering square-section supports with ebonised collar moulding detail, onto spade-type feet, the rectangular tops with raised low gallery edges, and having a further under-tier shelf beneath the cupboard. The figured timber having achieved a warm honey-coloured patina. In excellent original condition with no damage or repairs. European Continental but seemingly of English Georgian period inspiration and style. H 29" W 17" D 14" Probably French c.1880
