Description

Victorian inlaid walnut games table This Victorian inlaid walnut games table was made in 1866. The top with an inset chessboard and with attractive panels of inlay to each side. The top opens to reveal the green baize playing surface with the counter cups to each corner. There are also 2 inlaid score boards and the Victorian inlaid registration lozenge showing the date letter Q for 1866. Below the top are drawers with inlaid stringing, all with the original finely turned handles. This wonderful games table stands on turned and fluted legs, finishing with the original brass cup castors. Imagine the pleasure this table will give you as a special table for you and your friends to play bridge or other games around. 76cms wide 30ins 44.5cms deep 17 1/2ins 74cms high 29ins Measurements are as accurate as possible Delivery UK mainland FREE Other destinations please contact us, and we will get a quote.
