

SA1139911

A fabulous Antique “Oak and Mistletoe” Teacup and Saucer, Yates, c1820

Price

GBP 125

| USD $169 | EUR 146

Item Reference: SA1139911

Date of manufacture: 1800

Description

A fine example of high-quality tea duo from Regency period, c 1924-30, made at John and William Yates pottery in Hanley, Staffordshire, England. A beautiful, rare set with “Oak and Mistletoe” moulded border, lavish gold on deep rich cobalt ground and finely painted flowers in reserves. Similar examples can be found in A Compendium of British Cups by Michael Berthoud –plates 745 and 746. Both cup and saucer are marked to the reverse with pattern number 1164. Dimensions: Cup – 5.5 cm high (excluding handle), top diameter – 9.4 cm. Saucer, diameter – 15.2 cm. Condition: excellent antique condition without any damage or repair, no crazing and only minimal wear to gold (to the well, where the cup sits).

Seller Details

Touch of Time Antiques

Nottinghamshire United Kingdom

Tel: 07593 802248

International Tel: +44 7593 802248

