Description

An exquisite late 19th-century Sitzen-dorf porcelain four-arm candelabra featuring a beautifully modelled figure of a graceful young lady, adorned with intricate floral garlands. The quality and elegance of this piece are remarkable, highlighting Sitzen-dorf's famed craftsmanship. Exceptionally, most delicate porcelain rosebuds and leaves remain intact, enhancing its rarity and appeal. The top section, accommodating four candles, is removable, allowing conversion into a charming single-light candlestick, a versatile feature typical of the period. The base bears the authentic Sitzen-dorf cobalt-blue crossed-line factory mark and incised model number "207." Dimensions: Height (full): 50 cm | Height (single candlestick): 34.5 cm | Width: 27 cm | Depth: 27 cm | Weight: 2577 g Condition: Minor losses: a butterfly on the figure's knee missing, minor leaf tips broken, some enamel loss, a small section of wood broken. Overall, excellent antique condition. Please study the accompanying photographs carefully as they form an integral part of this description. If you have any questions, we will be happy to answer them. The item will be shipped with full tracking and insurance. It i...
