Description

Victorian inlaid rosewood writing table This Victorian inlaid rosewood writing table was made circa 1880. The desk stands on tapering legs that go down to spade feet with castors under. The top has a break centre to allow the sitter to get a bit closer to the work surface. Under the top are 3 drawers, a wide central drawer above the kneehole and a box drawer each side. The end drawers are boxwood strung and the central drawer has an inlaid marquetry panel to the centre. The leather inset writing surface is the original. This desk is a very elegant piece of late 19th century furniture. 97cms wide 38ins 56cms deep 22ins 74cms high 29ins Measurements are as accurate as possible Delivery UK mainland FREE Other destinations please contact us, and we will get a quote. We use a professional Removal company to transport our precious items and do not entrust them to usual parcel services. Therefore, delivery may be 7 -10 days, but it is worth the wait of course. On occasions customers have been disappointed to miss an item as they e-mailed their enquiry instead of phoning, I would recommend that if you wished to get the piece, please call rather than e-mail. We are very friendly an...
