Description

A decorative and unusual Edwardian-era cabinet in stained pine, featuring hand-painted floral Art Nouveau detailing to both the shaped gallery and the arched panel door, with subtle stylistic nods to the Arts & Crafts movement. The single door, with original brass handle, opens to a single raised shelf, all raised on a plinth base. The hand-painted motifs, stylised flowers, leaves, and fine black linework, are typical of the Art Nouveau period, adding decorative interest while remaining soft and organic in tone. Compact, practical and full of period charm, this decorative storage piece works well as a bedside cupboard, hallway cabinet or bathroom stand. Presented in very good antique condition with only some light age related surface wear and an attractive aged colour. Structurally sound, clean and ready to place in the home. English, circa 1905.
