Description

A Regency period mahogany box ottoman footstool, dating to circa 1810. This elegant piece has a distinctive waisted silhouette, upholstered in a soft, neutral-toned fabric that complements the rich tones of the original mahogany trim. The ottoman is finished with individually hand-tacked studs, adding a decorative and durable accent around the edges. Raised on discreet castors for easy movement, this piece offers both style and practicality. Its sturdy box form provides a place to rest your feet, but also potential storage.
