Description

This exquisite Art Nouveau display cabinet, crafted by James Philips & Sons, is a stunning antique piece in superb condition. The top shelf features a beautifully shaped and pierced gallery, with a central panel with intricate inlaid motif in satinwood and rosewood. The exquisitely stylized inlaid panel captures the essence of the period, add to the cabinet's elegant charm and is flanked by glass doors complete with working key. These open to reveal a luxurious velvet-lined interior, complete with the maker's label. The cabinet stands gracefully on four square legs, united by a shaped under-tier, showcasing its rich mahogany tones and warm patina. A refined and stylish addition to any home.
