Description

C18th George III Chippendale period carved gilt-wood frame rococo-style wall mirror. Rectangular gilt-wood frame with elaborate C-scroll and leaf-carved decoration retaining the original gilded surface. The open-work carved sides with trailing leaf and branch details, the inner margin of carved rococo design, the large C-scroll central cartouche with a rocaille 'icicle' bar motif. The base with a corresponding carved C-scroll rococo and leaf design cartouche. In excellent original condition with minor historic sympathetic restoration to small areas of gilding. Retains the original pine backboards. The clear, silvered mirror-plate being a well-chosen mid C19th replacement. A stylish and sophisticated carved gilt-wood framed eighteenth century Georgian period wall mirror of elegant proportions and practical scale. *Provenance : From the collection of Anne Parsons, Countess of Rosse (nee Messel of Nymans, Sussex) previously Armstrong-Jones and mother of Lord Snowdon. Late resident of Womersley Hall Estate, Yorkshire. Probably Irish. H 42" W 24" D 3" England or Ireland c.1760
