Description

This quality antique Victorian trombone link chain features a dog clip fastening, measuring 13.75" in length, modelled in solid 9ct Gold. The links have a bright rosy-gold hue and are individually stamped "375/ 9ct". This is a superb example of an Albert chain, dating back to Chester in 1899, and it would make a great addition to any collection. METAL 9ct Gold MEASUREMENTS Measures 13.75" in length Trombone links measure 6.06mm across Round links measure 6.46mm across T-bar measures 3.4cm Swivel Dog clip measures 2.1cm x 0.7cm WEIGHT 30.25 grams HALLMARKS Dog Clip - 9, 375, Every Link - 9, 375 - some slightly worn Link - H.W.L, Chester, Date letter q (1899) T-bar - 9, 375, H.W.L CONDITION This fantastic antique chain remains in great condition. The chain shows light wear in keeping with age and has a natural rosy patina. There is no damage to note; all the links remain secure, and a few have some age-related, very light surface wear. The dog clip is in fine working order, too, making this a wonderful investment and addition to your antique jewellery collection.
