

SA1140917

Fine Edwardian 18ct Gold Ruby and Diamonds Ring, Chester, 1900

Price

GBP 475

| USD $642 | EUR 556

Item Reference: SA1140917

Date of manufacture: 1900

Description

This is a fabulous Edwardian era cluster ring, one of those exquisite examples of timeless elegance and refined taste. Crafted in rich yellow 18ct gold throughout, it features a lovely pinky red ruby surrounded by a halo of rose cut diamonds in a belcher type setting. Fully hallmarked to the inside of the band for 18ct gold, Chester assay office, 1900. Great for stacking, can be a wonderful gift or engagement ring choice. Dimensions: ring size - UK M1/2 (USA 6.5), decorative part - diameter 9mm, central ruby - approx. calculated weight in setting - 0.3 ct, diamonds look well-matched, lively and sparkly, weight of the ring - 2.7 gram. Condition: excellent antique condition, all the stones appear original and undamaged.

Seller Details

Touch of Time Antiques

Nottinghamshire United Kingdom

Tel: 07593 802248

International Tel: +44 7593 802248