Description

A nice example of a small antique sterling silver trinket box. It is oval in shape and stands on four feet. It has a hinged lid and the interior is lined in green fabric. The top is nicely engraved with engine turned decoration and a central cartouche. It is hallmarked for Birmingham, 1938 and the maker Mappin & Webb. It is in good condition for its age and displays well. It has picked up some small knocks and minor surface marks and there are a couple of small dents here and there but no major damages and it displays well. It has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
