Description

A good quality 18th century housekeepers cupboard, the top opening to shelved cupboards to each side, with a central shelf and interior cupboard, a single drawer beneath. The cupboard gives good deep interior storage to the bottom two drawers in the base, which has faux drawers above. The cupboard is in good working order, some replacement shelves and catches, minor old treated woodworm, it is a lovely colour and all ready for use, giving good storage. The cupboard comes in two parts for moving and is dated around 1780.
