Description

Good late Georgian oak farmhouse kitchen table. Kneehole height 58.5. We do have the bottom of leg extensions. Which we had to cut off to get through the door. They added at least 2+ cms. Good original table. Over the last two hundred years humans have grown by at least 2 inches. So by adding small blocks about 100 years ago its adapting to modern living. As Darwin said Adapt or miss out on a good table !!
