Description

This is a handsome William IV period mahogany turn over top table in excellent original condition dating from around 1837. The table has a very elegant design with solid mahogany central column and gadrooned detail to the base. The frieze has a scroll design with mahogany cabochon and the x frame platform base is raised on attractive turned and gadrooned solid mahogany feet. This is in good sound condition and has a nice antique colour and patina. The table measures 60 cms deep, 107 cms wide by 73 cms high. UK delivery can be arranged with our trusted furniture courier and costs £65 plus vat to most destinations.
