Description

A complete set of 12 cast iron roman numeral 'clock golf' numbers dating from the late 19th / early 20th Century. Each number has spikes on the reverse for pushing into the ground and remains of their original white paint. They come in a good quality oak box with lovely dovetail joints. There are some slight differences in size between some of the numbers but they are very decorative and display well together as a set. They are in good original condition with a wonderful weathered patina. The paint has worn and flaked in places but there are no major damages. Approximate Measurements (box) : Height : 3 1/2" / 9cm Width : 9 1/2" / 24cm Depth : 6" / 15cm Largest number : VIII 4" (10cm) x 2 3/4" (7cm) The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
