Description

We are delighted to offer this stunning 18K gold ruby & rock crystal flower brooch. Captivating upon first glance, this brooch features a substantial size and a spectacularly hand-carved translucent rock crystal flower in the centre which has been meticulously engraved, presenting a life-like naturalistic design. The centre is accented with 6 rubies adding a hint of red and gold to the overall look. Furthermore, its opacity and finesse allows for light to be let through and depending on the weather, lighting and what is worn behind, the crystal's appearance varies & truly captivates the delicate and lively attributes of floral and natural beauty. The reverse side is set with an 18k gold brooch pin and pendant loop allowing this piece to be worn with versatility. Owing to its elegant and unobtrusive rock crystal tone, it could be worn with a wide array of clothing across various seasons. Overall an stunning and stylish piece of vintage jewellery perfect for flower lovers whether be it as a special gift or an addition to one's personal collection - this piece is a conversation starter in its own right and a wonderful way to accent your overall outfit.
