Description

A late 18th century (circa 1780) mahogany and brass bound oval cellarette or wine cooler of fine patina and large proportions. This cellarette consists of a finely figured, faded mahogany top with moulded edge leading down to a brass band supporting the frieze with fine quality brass knob handle, the top opening to reveal the original lead liner for storage of a number of bottles. The body of the cellarette is of oval form with brass band to both the top and bottom with original brass handles to either side, all supported on four tapered legs with cup brass castors. This cellarette is in very good original condition for age, is of stable construction and can go straight into a home – it is ideal storage for bottles or would also make a great wine or lamp table etc. Size: Height: 26.5" / 67.25cm Width: 27" / 68.5cm Depth: 19.5" / 49.5cm
