Description

This antique 20th century demi-lune cupboard is a superb example of traditional craftsmanship and elegant design. Made from rich mahogany, the piece is beautifully shaped with its signature half-moon form, offering both practicality and timeless style. Standing on finely carved cabriole legs with classic claw and ball feet, it exudes charm and sophistication. The decorative frieze and gallery back add to its ornate appeal, showcasing careful attention to detail. The cupboard features a single front door with its original brass handle and fittings, opening to reveal a fixed internal shelf—perfect for discreet storage. With a key included and boasting a stunning grain and deep, warm colour, this piece is in great condition and has clearly been well cared for. A rare and desirable find, this cupboard is ideal for adding period elegance to any hallway, lounge, or dining space.
