Description

A Gilt Wooden Standing Burmese Buddha. A serene Burmese Buddha figure carved from wood and adorned in gold gilt, shown in a graceful standing posture with gently outstretched hands. The robe drapes in rhythmic folds and is finely bordered with raised dot detailing, evoking a sense of movement and tranquillity. The Buddha's face is rounded and calm, with a faint smile, framed by tightly curled hair and an ushnisha at the crown. Early 20th Century circa 1930. Good overall condition age related gilt rubbing and some roundal missing to the headdress. Standing 53cm to a later 6cm plinth
