Description

This is a good Regency period circular tilt top pedestal table with a good colour and patina dating from the George III reign, circa 1810. The table has a snap top tilting mechanism to the turned central solid mahogany pedestal which is raised on three outswept legs with pad feet. This is in very good, sound original condition with no damage or restoration. The table measures 89 cms in diameter by 71 cms high. UK delivery can be arranged with our trusted furniture courier and costs £55 plus vat to most destinations.
