Description

Antique Mahogany D End Table This classic D-end mahogany table likely dates to the 19th century and showcases timeless craftsmanship. Solid and sturdy, it stands confidently on three elegant, tapered supports, offering both character and function. The tabletop boasts a beautifully aged patina—a testament to its long history and use. While there are some deeper marks and scars on the surface, they add to the table's authentic charm and story, rather than detract from its appeal. A versatile piece, it will blend effortlessly into both traditional and contemporary interiors, bringing warmth, depth, and a sense of heritage to any room.
