Description

Circa 1910. A mahogany cased Chinoiserie style chiming Grandmother Clock. (Chinoiserie, from 'chinois', the French for Chinese, was a style inspired by art and design from China, Japan, and other Asian countries in the 18th century) The case with an elegant pagoda-shaped top surmounted with a stylish finial, 8-day going clock, strikes the quarter and hours with a Westminster chime on musical rods, silvered domed dial with Arabic numerals, with a convex glazed door, with the clock case resting on stylish ogee bracket feet to the front. The clock has been serviced and is in working condition.
