Description

A stunning, fine and impressive antique 10.28 carat diamond and 18 carat white gold bracelet; part of our diverse 1920s diamond jewellery and estate jewelry collections. This stunning, fine and impressive antique diamond bracelet has been crafted in 18ct white gold. This impressive antique bracelet is composed with forty-one individually four-claw set feature transitional modern brilliant round cut diamonds. This central tennis bracelet arrangement is flanked on each side with forty-one further transitional modern brilliant round cut diamonds, claw set to the feature diamond incurve. The bracelet secures with an integrated push fit clasp to the reverse and benefits from an additional hinged security catch. This stunning bracelet has been independently tested using state of the art technology (Niton XL2 Analyzer) and verified as 18 carat gold. This impressive bracelet is supplied with five IDGL diamond grading report certificates for the feature stones, in addition to an IDGL diamond grading report card for the supporting stones. Such original multi-diamond bracelets, incorporating very evenly and high colour, graded diamonds, are becoming increasingly difficult to find.
