Description

An 18th-century chest on chest in well-figured mahogany with oak-lined drawers, retaining its original condition. The upper section offers three short drawers over three long, while the lower section comprises a further three full-width drawers. Each fitted with period brass swan neck handles and original locks. Dentil moulding to the cornice and bracket feet complete the formal Georgian design. A substantial and elegant storage piece. The chest splits in two parts to aid transport.
