Description

A large 17th century carved oak panel depicting St Odorada - possibly Odrada of Alem, who was a missionary nun in Alem, Flanders- Netherlands during 11th century. Set within a later ebonised frame, the panel is beautifully carved with Odorada in the centre and a horse behind her. With an angel above her, she is surrounded by finely carved garlands of flowers and fruit forming a large cartouche. Overall the panel is in fabulous condition and is ready to hang.
