

SA1142258

Antique refectory table dining table 17th century circa 1660 oak table

Price

GBP 5,950

| USD $8,034 | EUR 6,967

Item Reference: SA1142258Date of manufacture: 17th Century

Description

Antique refectory table dining table 17th century c1660 in date of a fairly large and impressive size and also with excellent proportions. Constructed of oak and elm, this beautiful and elegant example of a 17th century antique refectory table dining table is currently in with our in house restores, being checked and treated for any historic wood worm, as well as having any joints tightened and checked, in addition to a final wood nourishing bees wax polish. Table, dining table, refectory table, oak table, antique table Measurements: LENGTH: 284cm (9 feet 3.8 inches) WIDTH: 88cm HEIGHT: 76cm Do not miss out on this fabulous and beautiful piece of antique furniture, which has such a stunning presence and beauty. Its barrel legs and carved friezes combined with its simple yet elegant lines are so pleasing to the eye. Oak table, table, dining table, refectory table Wood table We are experts in antiques from the 1600 to 1900 with 40 years of knowledge In addition to previous generations being involved in the antiques business. We only list a small fraction of our stock, so if you are looking for anything particular, please ask. We ship worldwide, so please ask...

Internal Ref: Elmrefect

Seller Details

Gerald Neville Antiques

East Sussex United Kingdom

Tel: 07597 391543

International Tel: +44 7597 391543

