Description

Edwardian Elegance: Mahogany Inlaid Display Cabinet with Oval Mirror Pediment Edwardian crafted mahogany inlaid display cabinet. Standing at 190cm in height, this piece is a testament to the elegance and attention to detail characteristic of the Edwardian era. Crowned with an oval central mirror pediment, this cabinet immediately draws the eye upward, adding a touch of sophistication to the overall design. The mirror reflects the beauty within and enhances the visual appeal of the piece. The central panel features a concave glazed design, creating an interesting visual contrast. The glass allows for a clear view of the displayed items while adding a subtle curve to the cabinet's silhouette. The bowed door at the center, flanked by two display doors on either side, contributes to the graceful aesthetics of this piece. The bow front design softens the edges, creating a sense of fluidity. Open the doors to reveal a velour-lined interior that adds a luxurious touch. Two fitted shelves provide the perfect stage for displaying your treasured items, be it collectibles, china, or other decorative pieces. The cabinet stands on tapering legs that gracefully lead down t...
