Description

Late Georgian Scottish mahogany cased 8 day longcase clock by GEORGE HARVEY of STIRLING. Flame mahogany veneered case with calamander wood cross banding throughout the front. The segmented design of the base section is especially pleasing. The clock case retains its original feet. The case is in good original condition with no issues at all. The movement is totally original to the case and is an 8 day movement striking on the hour only with simple white enamelled dial and brass hands. Comes with original painted pendulum and cast iron weights. The movement has been fully serviced. SIZE; 19" wide by 10" deep by 7 foot high. 13" diameter dial. CIRCA; 1835 - 1840

Internal Ref: 10692
