Description

A small, French brass cased striking & repeating carriage clock. An enamel dial with Roman numerals and blued steel hands. The original case gilding. An 8-day duration mechanism striking the hours and 1/2 hours on a gong. A lever escapement visible through the oval top glass. A repeater button to the top. Circa 1895. There is slight wear to the gilding in places, but it's nice to have the original finish.
