Description

A 19th century country house sofa by renowned cabinet makers and upholsterers Morison & Co of Edinburgh Scotland. Structurally in good solid order with tight joints. The upholstery is worn and ideally needs a new fitted seat. The arms and the back can be reworked. It retains its original under lining with the stamp "Morison & Co upholsters Edinburgh". The finely carved legs and arms are evidence of its quality. There are two small labels underneath that read "property of Mary E Skellington". Morison & Co were at the forefront of Scottish furniture making, they received an order to fit out the first class accommodation of the Mauretania. Examples of Morison & Co furniture grace the rooms of Lauriston castle in Edinburgh. 45cm seat height.
