Description

Vernis Martin Serpentine Fronted Display Cabinet" Vernis Martin serpentine fronted display cabinet, a true testament to the artistry of the period. The front panel bears the signature of Dumas, adding an extra layer of authenticity to this piece of historical significance. The cabinet boasts a serpentine front, a hallmark of Vernis Martin design. This elegant curvature adds a sense of fluidity and grace to the piece, creating a visually captivating silhouette. The front panel is adorned with the signature of Dumas, an artisan whose name is synonymous with the Vernis Martin technique. This signature not only adds provenance but also attests to the exceptional craftsmanship of the piece. Fitted with glass shelves, the cabinet provides an elegant platform to showcase your most treasured items. The transparent shelves complement the serpentine design, allowing for a clear view of the displayed objects. Brass mounts adorn the cabinet, adding regal accents to the overall design. These carefully crafted mounts enhance the visual appeal and contribute to the historical charm of the piece. Raised on cabriole legs terminating in sabot feet, the cabinet stands with a to...
