Description

A splendid late Victorian period inlaid rosewood occasional table by Maple & Co. of London. Very well constructed in solid rosewood with attractive rosewood veneers onto a mahogany frame. Of octagonal form, the legs united by a under-stretchers and terminating in their original castors. Decorated throughout with inlaid detailing in boxwood, satinwood and ivory. Cleaned and waxed in our workshops and now offered for sale in very good condition, ready to go straight into the home. Dimensions: Depth and Width 68cms Height 67cms Maple & Co was established by John Maple, a shopkeeper from Horley, Surrey, who later opened a furniture shop in Tottenham Court Road. However it was his son, John Blundell Maple, who made Maples & Co a success. With exceptional business skills, John B. Maple took over the company while still a young man. By the 1880s they were the largest furniture store in the world, exported their fine furniture to every continent. Maples manufactured their luxury furniture entirely in-house, at a huge modern complex. A timber importer and furniture exporter, they landed prestigious contracts furnishing fine houses, hotels, embassies and palaces in Europe; am...
