Description

Mid 19th c. English Watercolour Landscape in Later Gilt Frame. A gently atmospheric English school watercolour, likely dating to the mid 19th century, painted in the manner of Gainsborough. The rural scene depicts trees and grazing animals amid a rolling countryside, with purple hills in the distance. Executed in muted natural tones with soft brushwork and delicate handling. Medium: Watercolour on paper. Date: Circa 1840-1860. Frame: Later gilt frame with decorative corners and beaded edge. Dimensions: Frame 55.5 x 45.5 cm. Condition: Foxing to the sheet front and back, some wear to edges and mount. Frame with light surface wear. Provenance: Removed from a country house in Worcestershire. A decorative 19th century watercolour with subtle charm and gentle tones, ready to hang.
