Description

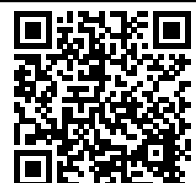

A good one pint tavern mug, probably by the maker recorded as E M, circa 1730. The mug has a slightly tapering plain body and stands on a stepped foot. The handle has a tongued thumb rest and a ball terminal at the lower end. There is a faint makers mark to the inside of the base. The mug is not verified and has no capacity label, so we can assume that this was a tavern mug or made for private use. An identical mug is published as item 150, page 58 in 'Early English Pewter Drinking Mugs' by Carl Ricketts. Provenance: Albert Bartram collection. Condition: Excellent condition with a lightly polished silver grey finish and some small traces of light oxide. Repairs: There is a very small repaired split to the righthand side of the handle (see images). Size: Height to rim: 4.50 in (11.50cm). Capacity: 20.00floz. Pewterer's reference number: Pewter Society: - PS17822. Cotterell: Old Pewter: Its Makers and Marks - not recorded.
